PENTECOST
GIFTED BY THE SPIRIT TO BE THE CHURCH

MEDITATION "Deep in our bones lies an intuition that we arrive here carrying a bundle of gifts to offer to the community. Over time, these gifts are meant to be seen, developed, and called into the village at times of need. To feel valued for the gifts with which we are born affirms our worth and dignity. In a sense, it is a form of spiritual employment – simply being who we are confirms our place in the village. Gifts are a consequence of authenticity; when we are being true to our natures, the gifts can emerge."

Our upcoming one-month pilot project will provide opportunities for people of all ages to enjoy selected menu items and converse or play games in a café-like atmosphere. We are calling it the Gathering Place, and all are welcome. We are catering to three distinct groups in our community: seniors, youth and anyone who would just like to share a cup of coffee and limited menu items with friends and neighbours. We do hope you'll join us! For the full article go to <https://www.pqbnews.com/e-editions/>

SACRED SPACES

SACRED SPACES WOULD LIKE TO THANK THE FOLLOWING

Watering the front gardens – Melanye & Ted Gough, Barb Roberts, Deb Pepper, Larry Newland, Steve Lucas, Allen Brown; taking care of the Columbarium area - Brenda & Gary Astle; taking care of the Meditation Garden - Linda Nelson; weeding etc. Don Emerson. I'm sure Don would like some help with the weeding. If you can help call Margaret Warburton 250-951-0538. Thanks, Ian Ward and Margaret Warburton, Sacred Spaces Co-Leads.

SECURITY CONCERNS - When exiting the building, at any time of the day or night, please be certain that the door you are using to exit the building is closed tight. This is of particular concern when using the lounge door, the kitchen door, the door near the washrooms and the door near the columbarium. On many occasions, it has been discovered that these doors are closed but are NOT latched leaving the staff at risk depending on the time of day and leaving the building accessible to theft. Thanks for your attention to this matter, Margaret Warburton, Co-Lead Sacred Spaces
